

College Preparatory Invitational

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES
Benefiting the CPI Scholarship & Educational Fund
A 501(c)(3) non-profit charity

The College Preparatory Invitational (CPI) is a unique equestrian competition designed to bring potential intercollegiate equestrian students together with college and university representatives and coaches. Riders in grades 8-12 must apply to compete in front of potential coaches for scouting and scholarship opportunities. The CPI also offers participants the opportunity to vie for educational and service related scholarships, as well as awards in many additional categories including a horsemanship test, journalistic photography and written essays.

Sponsorships offer you the opportunity for to connect with these dedicated young riders, their parents and trainers, as well as myriad college and university representatives from all over the nation during an action-packed three-day event.

Please contact us directly so that we can customize your sponsorship package to fit your needs and budget.
